Disclaimer

In order to comply with applicable laws, NMT may have to deny your request in any of the following cases where:

- (1) you are not able to clearly verify that the applicant is the data subject or authorized to submit the request;

- (2) your request is unreasonable, for instance, the applicant may not have the right to erase personal data or NMT does not have such personal data;
- (3) retention of such personal data is for the purposes of exercising freedom of expression or for the preparation of the historical documents or the archives for public interest, or for the purpose relating to research or statistics, in which the suitable measures to safeguard the data subject's rights and freedoms are put in place, or for the necessity of tasks for public interest of NMT. In case where such personal data is sensitive data, retention of such sensitive data is necessary for the compliance with laws of preventive or occupational medicine or public interest in the area of public health in accordance with section 26(5) (a) and (b) of the PDPA;
- (4) retention of such personal data is for establishing legal claims, legal compliance, exercise of legal rights or defenses;
- (5) proceeding your request may adversely affect and harm rights and freedom of other people;
- (6) processing of such personal data is for complying with applicable laws;
- (7) processing of such personal data is necessary for performance of contracts between the data subject and NMT; or
- (8) processing of such personal data is necessary for legitimate interests of NMT.

However, if your request is manifestly unreasonable or redundant, NMT may charge a processing fee at a reasonable cost. In general, you will not be charged for NMT's process in relation to the request.
